

AGENDA FOR SENIOR STAFF MEETING

Monday - 7 December

1030

---

1.   Mr. Amery                      World Roundup
2.   Mr. Dulles                    Comment on the Budget
3.   Mr. Kirkpatrick                Report on Meeting of President's Board
4.   Mr. Kirkpatrick                Publications Board
5.   Mr. Kirkpatrick                Response to Congressional Inquiries
6.   Mr. Saunders                   Christmas Pay Day
7.   Mr. Stewart                    United Givers Fund

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Senior Staff Meeting, 7 December 1959

25X1 1. Mr. Amory opened the Senior Staff meeting by reporting on Sino-Soviet relations, [redacted] and Poland. In regard to Sino-Soviet relations, Mr. Amory felt that Khrushchev was beginning to show a considerable amount of irritation with China and some dislike to Mao-tse Tung.

25X6 [redacted]
25X6 [redacted]

In regard to Poland, Mr. Amory stated that there was a tightening up of discipline in that country and that there was a strong likelihood of an eventual explosion taking place such as riots, etc.

2. The Director reported on the budget situation and advised that even though our budget has been cut fairly heavily by the Bureau of the Budget, we still have sufficient operating funds without serious cut-backs. Mr. Dulles asked each of the major components to prepare a list of all major projects in which there had been a cut-back or a termination and that he would use this list in his appearance next year before the Bureau of the Budget.

3. [redacted]
[redacted]

25X1 the whole his trip was most gratifying, that station personnel were trying very hard, that there was excellent teamwork and that there was a great improvement in personnel relations in the field over the past year. Mr. Helms felt that the station chiefs were very economy minded and very shortly there would be evidence coming into Headquarters of personnel cuts. Mr. Helms felt that the people in the field were very much aware of the improvement made by Headquarters in career service, personnel assignments, etc.

25X1 4. Mr. FitzGerald gave a fairly brief report on conditions existing [redacted] areas. Mr. FitzGerald commented on the fact that in most of the Far East area, there was considerable work being done now on the Communist Party, identification of members of the Communist Party and finding out more about the objectives of the Party.

25X1

5. Mr. Kirkpatrick reported on the meeting of the President's Board of Consultants and advised that the last meeting of this Board constituted the 4th such meeting this year. Mr. Kirkpatrick stated that two of the objectives discussed concerned [redacted] and the Watch Committee mechanization. He stated that a report was now being prepared to go to the President which would constitute the 5th set of recommendations prepared by the Board.

6. Mr. Kirkpatrick also reported on the CIA Publications Board which has the responsibility of setting the standards for all CIA publications. Mr. Kirkpatrick advised that the Board has an economy objective as well as the responsibility of making Agency publications as attractive as possible. This Board meets monthly and Mr. Kirkpatrick stated that at the present time, there were [redacted] persons in the Agency authorized to reproduce material and that the Board was going to make an effort to reduce this list for the sake of economy and efficiency. Mr. Kirkpatrick also reported briefly on the matter of Congressional inquiries and he asked that an effort be made to have a rapid response in each individual case involving Congress.

25X1

7. Mr. Saunders announced that Wednesday, 23 December, would be the Christmas payday although normally the payday for the period would fall on 25 December. Mr. Saunders advised that there would be a notice published very shortly announcing the Christmas holiday and the Christmas payday.

25X1

8. [redacted] reported that the UGF Drive has now reached its goal.

25X1

[redacted]

Assistant to the Director